ADP Redesign Project Diagram

OUTCOMES Project Brief The Redesign Project's aim is to support the 1. Health - More people are healthier and experience implementation and delivery of a Recovery fewer risks as a result of alcohol and drug misuse Oriented System of Care (ROSC) which Map on to Stocktake of emphasizes prevention and recovery. The Engagement Event with 2. Prevalence - Fewer adults and children are drinking or Redesign Project objectives are to: using at levels or patterns damaging to themselves or wider group of partners Comms & Engagement 1. Review and redesign the ADP delivery of services within localities to reflect strategic 3. Recovery - More individuals are improving their priorities of Early Intervention, Prevention and health, wellbeing and life chances by recovering from OD & Training Recovery and the delivery of a Recovery problematic drug/alcohol use; BITE to decide Orientated System of Care (ROSC). future service Refine workstreams based 4. Families - More children and family members who are design including 2. Adhere to the Quality Principles and Care on feedback from Event affected by alcohol and drugs are safe, well supported Performance & Framework Standards to deliver improved person centered and have improved life chances: outcomes for individuals. 5. Community - More communities and individuals are 3. Deliver a service that meets our legal and safe from alcohol/drug related offending and anti-social statutory responsibilities. behaviour; 4. Deliver a service that has the flexibility to Savings 6. Local Environment - More people live in a positive, workstreams to respond to changes in demand at a service and health promoting local environment where alcohol and implement individual level. (Based in the 4 tiers of drugs are less readily available; service redesign intervention model) 7. Services - All alcohol and drugs prevention, treatment 5. Offer an efficient and value for money service and support services are high quality. They are that delivers improved outcomes for individuals, continually improving, evidence based and responsive to families and communities and cost savings. CUSTOMER/SERVICE USER EXPERIENCE people moving through treatment into sustained recovery. 6. Meet the ADP strategic aims of Whole Family Approach, Whole Population. Dec-17 January 18 - ??? WORKSTREAMS September - December 2017 TBC Activity Activity 1. Comms & Engagement - Chris Lamont Bite Activity Workstreams - To improve the communication of ADP's role and remit to partner organisations and between members 1. Stocktake of Current Activity 1. Action plans developed for each Map on to Pipeline Model 1. Date and venue for wider - interviews conducted with service providers workstream engagement event selected 2. Organisational Design and Training - Colin Paton BITE to decide future - To develop a training and development plan for ADP 2. Leads to arrange meetings with teams 2. Analysis of Current and Future demand service design including 2. Invitees agreed by Project Board before each project board meeting members and partner organisaitions 3. Financial Savings 3. Event held 3. Performance and Framework - Clare Mailer Establish Workstreams to 3. Highlight reports to be completed by leads for each Project Board Meeting - To develop a robust performance framework for ADP implement service 4. Create Pipeline ROSC model 4. Feedback incorporated into that allows clear outcome measurement and redesign workstream actoin plans consistency, within P&K and across Tayside 4. Project Board to track progress monthly 5. Supporting documentation for BITE and report to startegy group quarterly 4. Prevention - Erin Martin - To design and implement a prevention strategy for substance misuse across P&K 5. Process - Kenny Ogilvy - To continue the redesign of processes started at the Engagement & BITE, ensuring a ROSC model of service delivery is Preparation for BITE BITE Redesign Activity implemented woth all elements of ROSC delivered

Implementation