An aerial photograph of Bolfracks Estate. The image shows a large, green, open field in the foreground, bordered by a dense forest. In the background, there is a body of water, likely a lake or a wide river, with numerous small boats anchored. The sky is overcast with grey clouds. The text 'Bolfracks Estate' is visible in the bottom right corner of the image.
